Local groups

Your ABA local group is a ready-made social network of local parents

Each ABA group is led by a qualified breastfeeding counsellor or educator who lives in the area.

Local activities include cuppa mornings, parenting discussions, pram walks and more.

ABA catch-ups are welcoming, inclusive, supportive and open to expectant, new and experienced mums and parents, whether breastfeeding or not.

What's coming up?

Come along and meet new friends. ABA's parenting village free catch-ups are regularly held in the Wynyard and Ulverstone areas. Scan below for the next catch-up:

In Tasmania, the ABA is supported by the Crown through the Department of Health

About us

The Australian Breastfeeding Association provides evidence-based breastfeeding and parenting information and support, available to all mothers and parents.

Access our local mothers groups to connect with others and have your breastfeeding questions answered by qualified peer supporters.

Support for all stages is available at our free local activities, at breastfeeding.asn.au, using the mum2mum app, calling the National Breastfeeding Helpline 1800 686 268 and texting the ABA LiveChat service.

Want to take a class? ABA offers expectant parents the ABA Breastfeeding Preparation Session education webinar – save with our local group $20 cashback offer.

Access ABA's Virtual Village for additional parenting webinars and online support services, including premium mum2mum app content.
